

Floodland: Character Analysis: English : Year 6

	Learning Objective	Overview	Assessment Questions	Resources
Lesson 1	To use skills of deduction and inference to explore characters in the text	In this lesson, children will use the skills of inference and deduction to explore the characters of 'Floodland' in more detail. As a class, they will analyse the character of Zoe, based on her words, thoughts and actions. In their independent activities, they will explore the characters of Dooby, Munchkin and William. In the alternative activity, children will be given quotations from the text and challenged to decide who said each one or who it is describing, noting the reasons for their decision.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Do children understand what is meant by 'deduction' and 'inference'? Can children use the text to deduce and infer information about different characters? Can children describe characters in their own words? 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Slides Text Extracts Description Cards Worksheet 1A/1B/1C Who is This? Cards (FSD? activity only)
Lesson 2	To explore the relationships between characters in the text	Children will first discuss which characters they most and least sympathise and empathise with, before moving on to exploring how the characters think and feel about each other, based on the events in the text. In their independent activities, children will be required to use their skills of inference and deduction to further explore the relationships between the characters, through discussion and role-play.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Can children discuss which characters they most/least sympathise/empathise with, and why? Can children identify and discuss the relationships between the characters in the text? Can children deduce and infer how the different characters feel towards each other? 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Slides Worksheet 2A/2B Character Cards Character Conversation Cards Discussion Around the Fire Challenge Card (FSD? activity only)
Lesson 3	To explore the features of a diary entry	Children will first explore what a diary is and the features it includes. They will be introduced to advanced features such as rhetorical questions, stream of consciousness and emotive language, with examples. After reading and discussing a diary entry from 'Floodland', children will identify its features together. In their independent activities, children analyse further diary extracts themselves.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Do children know and understand the features of a diary entry? Can children identify these features within a given diary example? Can children comment on the effectiveness of these features and explain how they influence the reader's understanding of the character or situation? 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Slides Worksheet 3A/3B/3C Diary Entries (FSD? activity only) Comparison Grid (FSD? activity only)
	To write a diary extract from a character's point of view	Children will first explore and discuss the features of a diary, before analysing a given example. They will then be challenged to apply what they have learnt about the characters in 'Floodland' in order to write a diary entry from one of their points of view, detailing a specific event that happened in the text, and how their character feels about it.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Can children put themselves 'into the shoes of' a character and write using 'their voice'? Can children successfully use the features of a diary in their written work? Can children compare and contrast their writing with another's? 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Slides Character & Scenario Cards Checklist Cards A/B/C Diary Template Zoe's Arrival Challenge Card (FSD? activity only)

Floodland: Character Analysis: English : Year 6

Reading - word reading
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> apply their growing knowledge of root words, prefixes and suffixes (morphology and etymology), as listed in English Appendix 1, both to read aloud and to understand the meaning of new words that they meet.
Reading - comprehension
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> continuing to read and discuss an increasingly wide range of fiction, poetry, plays, non-fiction and reference books or textbooks reading books that are structured in different ways and reading for a range of purposes increasing their familiarity with a wide range of books, including myths, legends and traditional stories, modern fiction, fiction from our literary heritage, and books from other cultures and traditions recommending books that they have read to their peers, giving reasons for their choices identifying and discussing themes and conventions in and across a wide range of writing making comparisons within and across books learning a wider range of poetry by heart preparing poems and plays to read aloud and to perform, showing understanding through intonation, tone and volume so that the meaning is clear to an audience checking that the book makes sense to them, discussing their understanding and exploring the meaning of words in context asking questions to improve their understanding drawing inferences such as inferring characters' feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions, and justifying inferences with evidence 		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> predicting what might happen from details stated and implied summarising the main ideas drawn from more than one paragraph, identifying key details that support the main ideas Identifying how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning discuss and evaluate how authors use language, including figurative language, considering the impact on the reader distinguish between statements of fact and opinion retrieve, record and present information from non-fiction participate in discussions about books that are read to them and those they can read for themselves, building on their own and others' ideas and challenging views courteously explain and discuss their understanding of what they have read, including through formal presentations and debates, maintaining a focus on the topic and using notes where necessary provide reasoned justifications for their views.
Writing - transcription HANDWRITING	Writing - spelling, punctuation and grammar
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> write legibly, fluently and with increasing speed by: choosing which shape of a letter to use when given choices and deciding whether or not to join specific letters choosing the writing implement that is best suited for a task. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> develop their understanding of the concepts set out in English Appendix 2 by: recognising vocabulary and structures that are appropriate for formal speech and writing, including subjunctive forms using passive verbs to affect the presentation of information in a sentence using the perfect form of verbs to mark relationships of time and cause using expanded noun phrases to convey complicated information concisely using modal verbs or adverbs to indicate degrees of possibility using relative clauses beginning with who, which, where, when, whose, that or with an implied (i.e. omitted) relative pronoun learning the grammar for years 5 and 6 in English Appendix 2 indicate grammatical and other features by: using commas to clarify meaning or avoid ambiguity in writing using hyphens to avoid ambiguity using brackets, dashes or commas to indicate parenthesis using semi-colons, colons or dashes to mark boundaries between independent clauses using a colon to introduce a list punctuating bullet points consistently use and understand the grammatical terminology in English Appendix 2 accurately and appropriately in discussing their writing and reading
Writing - transcription SPELLING	English Appendix 2
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> use further prefixes and suffixes and understand the guidance for adding them spell some words with 'silent' letters [for example, knight, psalm, solemn] continue to distinguish between homophones and other words which are often confused use knowledge of morphology and etymology in spelling and understand that the spelling of some words needs to be learnt specifically, as listed in English Appendix 1 use dictionaries to check the spelling and meaning of words use the first three or four letters of a word to check spelling, meaning or both of these in a dictionary use a thesaurus 	WORD <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The difference between vocabulary typical of informal speech and vocabulary appropriate for formal speech and writing [for example, find out – discover; ask for – request; go in – enter] How words are related by meaning as synonyms and antonyms [for example, big, large, little]. SENTENCE <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Use of the passive to affect the presentation of information in a sentence [for example, I broke the window in the greenhouse versus The window in the greenhouse was broken (by me)]. The difference between structures typical of informal speech and structures appropriate for formal speech and writing [for example, the use of question tags: He's your friend, isn't he?, or the use of subjunctive forms such as If I were or Were they to come in some very formal writing and speech] PUNCTUATION <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Use of the semi-colon, colon and dash to mark the boundary between independent clauses [for example, It's raining; I'm fed up] Use of the colon to introduce a list and use of semi-colons within lists Punctuation of bullet points to list information How hyphens can be used to avoid ambiguity [for example, man eating shark versus man-eating shark, or recover versus re-cover] TEXT <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Linking ideas across paragraphs using a wider range of cohesive devices: repetition of a word or phrase, grammatical connections [for example, the use of adverbials such as on the other hand, in contrast, or as a consequence], and ellipses Layout devices [for example, headings, sub-headings, columns, bullets, or tables, to structure text] TERMINOLOGY FOR PUPILS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> subject, object active, passive synonym, antonym ellipsis, hyphen, colon, semi-colon, bullet points
Writing - composition
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> plan their writing by: identifying the audience for and purpose of the writing, selecting the appropriate form and using other similar writing as models for their own noting and developing initial ideas, drawing on reading and research where necessary in writing narratives, considering how authors have developed characters and settings in what pupils have read, listened to or seen performed draft and write by: selecting appropriate grammar and vocabulary, understanding how such choices can change and enhance meaning in narratives, describing settings, characters and atmosphere and integrating dialogue to convey character and advance the action precising longer passages using a wide range of devices to build cohesion within and across paragraphs using further organisational and presentational devices to structure text and to guide the reader [for example, headings, bullet points, underlining] evaluate and edit by: assessing the effectiveness of their own and others' writing proposing changes to vocabulary, grammar and punctuation to enhance effects and clarify meaning ensuring the consistent and correct use of tense throughout a piece of writing ensuring correct subject and verb agreement when using singular and plural, distinguishing between the language of speech and writing and choosing the appropriate register proof-read for spelling and punctuation errors 		