

RE Assessment Grid : Why is the Torah special? : Year 1/2

Why is the Torah special?
Group: Year: Term:
RE
Lesson 1	Do children know that Judaism is one of the main world religions?
	Do children know that Abraham is known as the father of the Jewish people?
	Do children understand the meaning of 'faith' and 'courage'?
Lesson 2	Do children know that Jews believe Moses was told the Torah by God?
	Do children know what the Ten Commandments are?
	Can children describe rules they follow in their own lives?
Lesson 3	Do children know what the Torah is?
	Can children explain some of the reasons why the Torah is important to Jews?
	Can children describe how Jewish people look after the Torah today?
Lesson 4	Do children understand that Torah includes different types of writing, including rules and stories?
	Can children describe some of the moments that Jacob showed faith and courage?
	Can children reflect on times when they have shown faith or courage?
Lesson 5	Do children understand that the Torah provides many different rules for Jewish people to live by?
	Do children know that some laws in the Torah tell Jews what they should and should not eat?
	Can children identify some foods that are kosher and non-kosher?
Lesson 6	Do children know that the Torah teaches Jews how they should treat other people?
	Can children describe some of the ways in which Jews help others?
	Can children relate this to their own experiences of helping others?																		